NASHVILLE: MONDAY MORNING.... NOVEMBER 1, 1858

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS. Wishing to confine our business as near as possible to the CASH SYSTEM, we have determined hereafter to collect our subscriptions, within the city, QUARTERLY. To carry this determination into effect, we have placed our whole city list in the hands of Mr. WILLIAM GILL, who will make the collections, and also life as a printer; and worked at the case in attend to the delivery of the Papers, and see Columbia about twenty-five years ago. If that subscribers are served punctually. We we are not mistaken, he was at that time con-hope this arrangement will be satisfactory to nected, either as editor or publisher, with one all parties. Those who may desire to save them of the papers here. He went from Columbia selves the necessity of making four payments

The "Gernan Yagers" is the title of a new military company which has been organized in our city, and is preparing for a since quite a number of them, dim with the parade next Monday. The uniform of the dust of time, and much soiled from long company is quite neat and handsome-the coat is a dark green frock, with light green | highly prized by their owners. In 1851 Co collar and cuffs, edges trimmed with red cord | Figures issued a revised and improved edition -buttons bright. The pants are a light grey, with a green stripe down the legs. The arms of the men are a rifle and short swords. The hat similar to that worn by the U.S. Riffemen. On the occasion of the first parade of the YAGERS, a flag is to be presented to them by through several sessions. He held a number the ladies, at the residence of Mrs. Gollie, of other responsible offices, the daties of YAGERS, a flag is to be presented to them by north Summer Street, McGavock's addition. We had the pleasure, Saturday, of calling there is company with a friend, a member of the Yagers, to see the flag. It is an elegant and leastiful o. e, made of the finest material. On one side is an excellent painting of the German Goddess of Liberty, with a representative of the globe in her right hand, whilst her left holds at rest the American coat of arms-in her rear the forces of the Roman lictors. The silk on the side of the flag is a lively green. On the other side are the red and white stripes and the stars of American ensign. The stars are handsomely embroidered | were, will doubt no longer. The visit was with white silk. A very fine cord and tassels furnished by Mr. OSCAR BOHME, form a part of the adornments. The painting was done by Messrs. Schleicher & Knoch, of this city, and is highly creditable to them. It gives us much gratification to note the orspirit amongst us needs reviving, and we trust the YAGERS and their predecessors the Shelfr Guards will be able to arouse the old arder of our people. The Germans take great pride in military drill, and we shall expect to see the YAGERS soon become a very choice and thoroughly drilled corps.

Death of Col. Wm. Fields. We learn from the Galvestern News that Col. William Fields, whose name for the last ten years has been so closely identified with political affairs of Texas, died at Hempstead in that State, on the 9th of Sept. last, after an illness of eight or ten days. The News says he died of congestive fever: in the

stead on the day of his death, the disease it

He began life as a printer; and worked at the case in nected, either as editor or publisher, with one to Nashville, and thence to Knoxville, at one during the year, can, if they prefer it, pay in of which places he printed and published the advance for the whole year. which may claim the distinction, we believe of having been the first literary work ever published in Tennessee. Copies of this edition are now very rare, though a few years usage, were to be met with in Maury, William son and Davidson counties and were ver from the press of Lippincott, Grambo &Co Philadelphia, and the work may now be had at any of the book stores in this country. Col. Fields emigrated to Texas about th year 1836. He was elected to the Legislature from Liberty County some ten years ago, and continued to represent that county which he discharged in a manner highly creditable to himself and satisfactory to the people. At the time of his death he was Chief

He came as we un derstood, to make a personal examination into the condition and working of the Franklin branch. Probably no one doubted the soundness of everything about the branch before; but since Orville Ewing has endorsed O. K. upon its doings, the doubters, if any there made in the accidental absence of our cashier, but as nothing needed to be covered up, i made no difference. We profess to understand just as little as our neighbors-just as little as anybody but the Memphis Avalanche-of the business of banking. But there are some things so patent that even we feel safe in speaking of ganization of this company. The military them. And one of the things so prominently obvious, that "he that runs may read," is the fact, that to the firm and sagacious manage meat of the Planter's Bank, are we mainly indebted for the present sound character of Tennessee currency. We would detract noth ing from the ment which the Union or any other bank may rightfully claim in this matter; we only mean to say that if any of them stand upon equal footing in this regard with the Planter's, their action has come less within the limited scope of our observation. We hope that this honest testimony of financial ignoramus in favor of the Planter's Society for the improvement of its members Bank, will do that institution no harm .-BRICK KILN BURSTED-NEGRO MAN KILLED. -On Friday night last, a brick kiln on the
